

Tips to Protect Yourself from Scams

Dear Friend,

Every day we hear more stories about innocent people falling victim to a scam, wiping out their finances and devastating their lives. This month I am sharing some important tips for you to keep in mind to protect yourself and your family.

Real estate wire fraud, whether it is cash sales, mortgage payoffs or title-related transactions, is also becoming more prevalent. So be sure to check out my tips to help you protect any transactions you may make via a wire transfer.

The best tip to protect yourself from a scam? Rely on your network of trusted professionals. If you need a recommendation for any kind of professional service, please let me know and I will be happy to connect you to one.

Sincerely,

Oh, by the way... if you know of someone who would appreciate the level of service I provide, please call me with their name and contact information.
